The 1992 University of Arizona Wildcats will be remembered for a brilliant defense that led the nation in points allowed (just 8.9 points per game).

With eight of 11 starters back from that stingy defensive unit, there are high hopes in Tucson that this will be a special year. It might be simply a matter of producing enough offense to bring home a Pac-10 title.

But back to the defense once again. The Cats have one player who has achieved All-America status and another one knocking on the door.

Senior noseguard Rob Waldrop is winding up a remarkable career. This 6-2, 274-pounder from Horizon High School in Scottsdale had 22 tackles behind the line of scrimmage and 10 sacks in '92. He totaled 55 stops altogether.

The awards came pouring in. He won all-conference honors. He was an AP and UPI All-American. He was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which recognizes the nation's outstanding lineman.

Right behind Waldrop is another Arizona product on the verge of greatness. Junior inside linebacker Sean Harris (6-3, 251) hails from Tucson High. He has turned into a brick wall in the middle of the Wildcat defense.

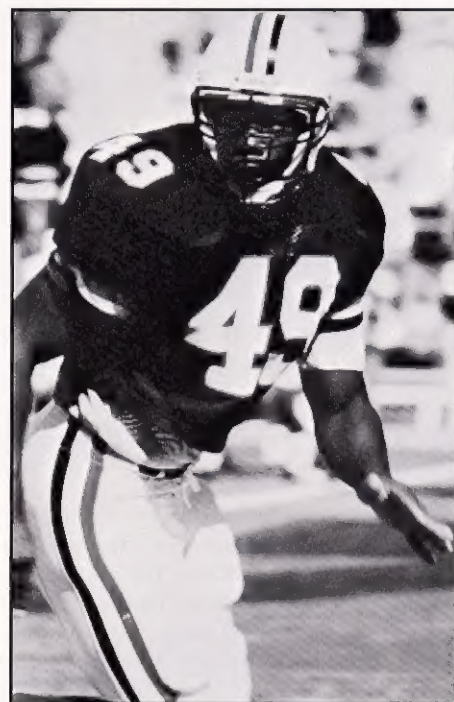

Last fall, Harris contributed 71 tackles, 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage and two interceptions. As a sophomore, he won second-team all-Pac-10 accolades.

Although Waldrop and Harris are the headliners, the remainder of the Wildcat defense packs a powerful punch. Coach Dick Tomey has regulars like DT Jim Hoffman (6-4, 283), DE Tedy Bruschi (6-1, 258), ILB Brant Boyer (6-2, 232), SS Brandon Sanders (5-10, 170) and FS Tony Bouie (5-10, 188) to keep everything going in the right direction.

The outside backers – junior Akil Jackson (6-1, 234) and senior Shawn Jarrett (6-4, 230) – are new, but they definitely have great talent.

The corners should be junior Mike Scurlock (5-11, 195), converted from a linebacker slot, and senior Jey Phillips (6-2, 183).

To be fair, Arizona did lose some great defenders – DT Ty Parten, DE Jimmie Hopkins, OLB Richard Maddox, Sean Harris could be as good as any linebacker every to play at Arizona. He had 71 tackles a year ago.

Sophomore defensive end Tedy Bruschi has already established himself as an asset to the great Wildcat defense.

OLB Jamal Lee, CB Keshon Johnson and CB Darryl Morrison. Johnson was an all-conference performer.

Despite that, most everyone believes the Cats' defense will be solid as a rock again.

Offensively, Tomey has made it known that the passing game will have to be a bigger part of the Arizona attack. That's fine with Dan White, a transfer from Penn State who is likely to take over at quarterback.

White, a sophomore, has good size (6-5, 212) and a strong arm. He has fine receivers in wideouts Troy Dickey (6-3, 226), Terry Vaughn (5-9, 181) and tight end Roderick Lewis (6-5, 251), all seniors. Dickey grabbed 28 passes for 395 yards last year. Vaughn managed 23 for 311.

It will still be run first and pass second though, so the Wildcats will need a good supply of running backs. No problem.

Junior Ontiwaun Carter has amassed over 1,300 yards rushing in his first two seasons. If he continues at this pace, he'll soon be one of the most prolific runners in Wildcat history.

Junior Ontiwaun Carter (5-11, 182) has scampered for over 1,300 yards in his first two years in Tucson. He'll be a force again this year.

Senior Billy Johnson (5-10, 200) is very versatile and has battled through a number of injuries to play well for Arizona. He played fullback last year, when he finished with over 500 yards rushing.

Junior Chuck Levy (6-1, 197) earned all-Pac-10 honors as a freshman, but he has some knee problems since. Levy had surgery last February and he's due for a big year in '93. Despite everything, he still collected over 400 yards on the ground last season.

Others will make their presence felt too. Redshirt frosh Gary Taylor and Lamont Lovett could shine and Tomey will find somebody at fullback to clear a path for his scatbacks.

The offensive line will feature OG Warner Smith (6-2, 283), but OT Paul Stamer (6-4, 260), OG Eric Johnson (6-1, 270) and C Mani Ott (6-2, 255) are also returning starters. Others competing for playing time are Pulu Pomele (6-3, 300), Mu Tagoai (6-4, 300), Hicham El-

Troy Dickey should be a key factor if the Wildcats throw the ball more this year. At 6-3 and 226 pounds, he can be an overpowering receiver.

Mashtoub (6-3, 275), Mike Ciasca (6-6, 291) and JC transfer Bryan Hand (6-5, 295).

Junior Steve McLaughlin (6-1, 171) and freshman Matt Peyton (6-1, 180), both from Sahuaro High in Tucson, will vie for punting and placekicking duties, while Levy and Vaughn will do some damage returning kicks.

BRIAN MURRAY, a 1972 Salpointe High grad, was a three-year starter at Arizona, and projected as a high NFL draft pick, but was killed in a fall at Redington Pass, between the Catalina and Rincon mountains, in April 1977.

EASTERN, WESTERN HIT THE '93 JC TRAIL

A great recruiting year for coach Don Conrad at EASTERN ARIZONA JUNIOR COLLEGE certainly has picked up the spirits in Thatcher.

"We signed 14 players from the Phoenix Metro Area and 18 players from the Tucson Metro Area," says Conrad. "We will be young in a lot of positions, but we should have great talent."

Of course, Conrad is relying strictly on freshmen. He has 15 Gila Monsters back that picked up varsity letters last year, when EAC finished with a 3-6 record.

In fact, Conrad's crew won their first two contests, before injuries and depth problems sent them on a season-ending 1-6 streak.

Competing in the Western States League is brutal indeed. The competition is generally acknowledged to be among the best in the nation and facing the likes of Snow, Ricks, Glendale and Mesa can be a nightmare.

If the Gila Monsters are to improve, they must get big-time contributions from a half-dozen sophomores.

Quarterback Kevin Standerfer (6-1, 180), running back Isaiah Lee (5-9, 180) and wide receiver Van Morlenson (6-4, 190) are all fine athletes. Lee and Morlenson reportedly have 4.5-4.6 speed. The tight end is big and quick. That would be 6-2, 230-pound Shannon Mills.

Defensively, the tandem of defensive lineman Jason Rivers (6-3, 280) and free safety Brad Wilson (6-4, 215) is awfully good. They'll need help, but an improved defense would go a long way towards curing some of EAC's ailments in the win column.

Freshmen of note include OL/DL Brent Hunt (6-6, 270), OL/DL Anthony Miller (6-4, 265), RB Boo Riley (5-10, 185), OL/DL Eric Shook (6-3, 260), DB John Joiner (6-0, 210), DB Carlos Lee (6-1, 195), DL Kihei Cosier (6-2, 290) and LB Dan Nihipali (6-3, 245).

In '93, the Gila Monsters need to get off to a quick start ... and keep it going.

Meanwhile, Walt Criner at ARIZONA WESTERN COLLEGE can't help but be a little more optimistic about what's around the bend.

Although the Matadors were just 2-7 last fall, Criner has an astounding 29 lettermen back in the fold. The coaching staff is now in its second year and the team is Criner's – not inherited as it was a year ago.

Foremost among the returnees are five sophomores: WR Dominic Harris (6-2, 168), DL Jeff Traversy (6-6, 260), OL Jesse Trevino (6-3, 280), DL Jeff Gerrow (6-3, 275) and DB James Smith (6-2, 185).

Experience is a very valuable commodity at all levels – especially in the junior colleges where the turnover is so great. Maybe Criner's Matadors can take a good run at the "Big Boys" this year.

AMPHI, CDO FAVORED IN 5A SOUTH SHOOTOUT

The Panthers of Amphitheater are a slight favorite to capture honors in the 5A South in 1993. Coach Vern Friedli has 21 letterwinners back from his 10-3 club of a year ago, including some key skill position players.

If Amphi doesn't finish first, you can expect either Canyon del Oro or Salpointe to take the title.

CDO should be very solid, thanks to the likes of honors candidates Colin Porter (RB/LB), Russ Brown (WR/DB) and Adam Evans (OL/DL).

Salpointe closed out the '92 campaign with a 6-4 mark. The Lancers look good in the lines, but coach Pat Welchert must rely on juniors to get the job done in the backfield.

The Tucson squad is well-respected by opposing coaches and could surprise, although the Badgers making the playoffs is far from surprising. It's nearly an annual event.

AMPHITHEATER

Coach Friedli looks forward to the '93 season with "great anticipation." And with good reason!

Senior flyer Andre Haymore (5-10, 180) is the cornerstone of the Panther running game. He's one of the quickest backs in the state and should land numerous awards this year. Watch for Haymore to continue his career at the collegiate level when he finishes up at Amphi.

The Panther signalcaller is Amar Hall, a 5-9, 165-pound senior. He has 4.7 speed. The top receiver could be another senior, Dana Davis (6-3, 190).

Defensively, the leaders are LB Mike Sindrich (6-2, 220), LB John Jackson (6-3, 210) and DB Kevin Lee (5-10, 180). Sindrich is outstanding, while Jackson and Lee are not far behind. Scoring on the Panthers will be a tough chore.

CDO

An amazing 25 lettermen are back for coach Rich Werbylo at CDO, a team that took seven wins in 12 outings last fall. And the JV finished 8-1, so some youngsters with talent are also joining the varsity.

No doubt, the aforementioned trio of Porter, Brown and Evans will show the way. Porter (6-1, 182) is a fine running back who doubles as a hard-hitting backer for the Dorado defense. Brown (5-10, 170) has good speed (4.6) and roams the CDO secondary with grace and skill. Evans is a 6-4, 238-pound physical specimen who can be found in the trenches on both offense and defense.

Junior Tony Brown (5-11, 180) and sophomore Alonzo Brown (5-11, 170) will see action in both backfields, while senior Quinn Leverenz (6-1, 217) is a valuable lineman.

Others to watch include DL Chris Carrizoza, OT/DT Tony Cimetta, RB/DB Mike Corbin, OT/DT Josh Crane, TE/DE Matt Dutro, OT/DT Jake Gittlen, OG/LB Marty Klell, WR/DB Pat Lenihan, RB/DE Aaron Massari, OT/DT Rick Reyes, OG/DT Ted Robles, RB/DB Jack Sather, C/LB Brian Sense, WR/DB Larry Subervi, WR/DB Gary Swingle, WR/DB Ken Welsch, RB/LB T.J. McCall and TE/DE Dan Gatley.

All are seniors who would like to close out their prep careers in grad style.

The best could be the tandem of linemen Gabe Riveria (5-9, 240) and Sam Zamora (5-8, 230). Strong and agile for their size, this pair should deliver plenty of running room for the likes of halfback mark Sanchez (5-6, 150), who runs the 40 in 4.75 seconds.

Lineman Arron Hall (5-9, 200) and split end Justin Harlan (6-1, 180) are also capable performers.

TUCSON

Todd Mayfield has another good group at Tucson, where RB/DB Kevin Shelton, C/DE Jesus Grijalva and QB/WR/DB Curtis Flanagan are ready to go.

Shelton (5-10, 170) is very quick and should pace the potent Badger ground game. And he shouldn't be taken lightly on defense either.

Grijalva (6-2, 210) is another two-way player who has already earned all-city and all-region recognition.

Flanagan (5-10, 170) is versatile and valuable. When he isn't driving rival defenses crazy, watch for him to join forces with Shelton (among others) to give Mayfield a deadly secondary.

Other standouts include OG/LB Gavino Bravo (6-0, 200), FB/DE Derrick Edmondson (5-11, 215), OG/LB Eric Gee (5-11, 185) and TE/LB Mike Brown (6-1, 210).

There may not be another Sean Harris, a former Tucson High all-stater who may become an All-American at the University of Arizona this year, but the Badgers are always dangerous. And the 7-3 slate they compiled a year ago is certainly not out of the question.

BUENA

The Colts could be very good this fall, based upon the return of a number of fine players. Certainly, a repeat of last year's 2-8 seems unlikely.

The passing game should be super. Quarterback Chuck Cunningham (5-10, 160) and receivers Mike Patrick (6-2, 180) and Adrien Redding (6-0, 180) can get the job done. All three earned all-league recognition in '92. Cunningham threw for nearly 1,200 and five scores a year ago.

The line play is sparked by Jesse Lugo (6-2, 280) and Brock Root (6-1, 190). The competition is lively, but this could be the year that Buena makes a move towards the playoffs.

PUEBLO

Junior field general Brandon Quihuis appears to be the Warriors' bright light as Pueblo gears up for another year of 5A South football. Coach Saturnino Santa Cruz is hoping his 6-1, 180-pounder can guide his club to a winning season.

In '92, Quihuis played so well that he was named second-team quarterback on the all-region team behind Buena's Chuck Cunningham. Not bad for a sophomore.

NOGALES

"We have some key returnees," says head coach Jim Paul, "but we are moving from 4A to 5A. So it remains to be seen what will happen."

That says it all.

The Apaches could move up in classification and enjoy immediate success. Or they could struggle some. The more likely scenario is that a transition year is in the offing.

Sixteen letterwinners are back in uniform, so the experience factor is a plus. Robert Bonillas, a gifted 6-2, 200-pound receiver, won all-region accolades as a junior. He had 33 receptions for 590 yards in just seven games last year, due to an injury.

Also back for the Apaches, who finished 3-6-1 last time out, are a couple of running back-linebacker types. That would be senior Juan Velasco (6-0, 230) and junior Ricky Monroy (6-1, 175). The former has plenty of power and the latter can get around the corner.

A trio of seniors must pace Nogales in the trenches, where depth could be a major problem. Tackles Jorge Castaneda (6-2, 240) and Jose Huerta (6-2, 260) will team with OG/DE Gabe Kory (6-1, 195) to get the job done.

Unfortunately for coach Paul and his crew, the five of the Apaches suffered knee injuries last year. It's not likely that this team will be that unlucky again. But there's no doubt that Nogales faces a huge challenge in '93.

THE 4A TOP DOGS ARE THE SABINO SABERCATS

A region title. A state championship. An undefeated season. These are worthy accomplishments for any high school coach.

But 1992 was really a dream season for coach Jeff Scurran at Sabino High. From a 10-6 triumph over rival Sahuaro in the opener, to a convincing 31-12 win over Wainae High in Hawaii, to a big victory in the state finale versus Washington, Scurran's Sabercats proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that they were the best in the state at the 4A level.

Now all we want to know is if they can do it again. Well, Sabino may not be quite as dominating as it was a year ago, but another team must take the title away. We don't expect that to happen.

In the 4A Sonoran, Flowing Wells appears to have the best chance. The Caballeros are a clearcut choice to finish second, thereby qualifying for the playoffs.

SABINO

Seventeen veterans return from last year's perfect 14-0 outfit. Scurran has a number of outstanding skill position players back in uniform, headed by running back Corey Hill and quarterback Jeff Saffer.

Hill is excellent. He really came into his own late in the year and was a superior performer in the playoffs. He finished with about 800 yards rushing on the year. With 4.5 speed, this 6-0, 200-pound senior should be one of the better runners around and he's definitely a major college prospect.

Saffer is very physical at 6-4 and 220 pounds. In fact, he won numerous honors as a defensive lineman in '92. But he'll be Scurran's signal caller this fall and he should be super.

Providing plenty of support for Hill and Saffer are the likes of senior RB/DB Shawn McFarland (5-11, 180), junior RB/LB Bryan Schwanenberger (5-10, 190), junior RB/LB Greg McFarland (5-10, 180) and senior RB Josh Robinson (5-8, 170).

The top receiving threats are wideouts Matt Carnes (5-10, 150) and Craig Biesterfeld (5-11, 155), plus tight end Matt Mike (6-3, 190), all seniors.

Sabino also has some quality players in the lines, namely OT Jeff Snow (6-5, 230), C/LB Matt Traynor (5-11, 200), OG James Counts (5-11, 210), OT/LB Justin Di Scenza (6-2, 190) and LB Ben Miller (5-10, 215).

The Cats are chasing their third state 4A football title in the past four years. They just might win that race.

FLOWING WELLS

"It was very rewarding to go to the playoffs for the first time in five years," says coach John Kashner. "We won our first round game against Coconino in the Skydome."

A repeat performance is on Kashner's mind and he has enough Caballeros to get the job done. In fact, 16 letter-winners return from the 8-4 unit of '92, while members of the fine 7-1 junior varsity are also available.

Kashner anticipates he'll have a strong running game, spearheaded by the talents of senior Aaron Corona (5-8, 170) and junior Kevin Coman (5-6, 150). The quarterbacking duties belong to senior Mark Nielson, a 6-3, 195-pound athlete who should make plenty of big plays for Flowing Wells this year.

Linebackers Mark O'Dell (6-0, 190), Josh Despain (6-1, 195) and Daxton Valles (6-2, 220) will key the defense and must play well for the Caballeros to challenge Sabino. This trio will also be the mainstays in the offensive line.

SANTA RITA

A dozen starters – seven on defense and five on offense – are back and raring to go for coach Bob Vielledent at Santa Rita. The Eagles missed the playoffs last year, thanks to a terrible start. After dropping their first five contests, coach Vielledent's bunch won four of the last five.

Senior Darren Jackson (6-0, 170) is the starter at quarterback. He's plenty capable and, if the Eagles can find enough receivers, the potent Santa Rita passing game should be in high gear again.

The established pass-grabbers include split end Barrett Baker (6-1, 180), junior flanker Reggie Walker (5-10, 170) and junior tight end Jason Randels (6-2, 200).

Senior NG/OG Mike Fedrico (6-2, 245) and junior DT Montel McKinley

(6-4, 241) are significant players up front. In fact, Fedrico should be one of the better linemen in the city of Tucson.

CHOLLA

Defense and special teams are the strengths of this year's edition of Cholla Charger football. Eight veterans are back to stop the other guys and senior Eric Fagan (5-10, 175) is a formidable punter and place kicker.

Coach Jim Yencarelli hopes his offense comes around in time to better last year's 5-5 slate. Cholla definitely has some beef in the likes of OL/LB Tommy Lopez (6-0, 220), OL/DL Mark Lopez (6-6, 320), OL/DL honors candidate Eric Stonechek (6-0, 195), OL/DL Octavio Salazar (6-0, 205), OL/DL Jason Felix (6-1, 255) and OL/DL Ben Sherman.

Transfers Jimmy Guttierrez (6-2, 250), Lloyd Sanders (6-1, 235), Ruben Silvas (6-3, 195), Steve Sweetser (6-0, 195) and O.J. Ramos (5-10, 190) will help too.

However, the Chargers' best player could very well be senior Kearan Clark (6-2, 210), a two-way standout at running back and defensive back.

Others worth watching are WR/DB Henry Rios (5-10, 195), WR/DB Chris Romero (5-11, 185) and RB/DB Donald Bryant (5-9, 190). It's safe to say that playing Cholla in '93 will be a physical challenge.

DOUGLAS

"Last year was a year of injuries and low numbers," says Bulldog head man Ron Ellsworth. "We had to bring up seven sophs. They received valuable playing experience."

Unfortunately, as is often the case, the team also suffered through some hard knocks, as Douglas put a 1-8-1 mark on the board.

But the outlook this year is better, as the Bulldogs return 15 lettermen and have a solid group manning the lines. That unit includes TE/DE Emet Hernandez (5-10, 235), OT/DE Hector Huerta (6-3, 200), junior OG/DT Chris Bazua (6-4, 278), junior OT/DT Michael Parks (6-4, 270) and junior OT/DT Eric Urias (6-3, 250).

The Douglas quarterbacking chores should go to either junior Richard Alvarado (5-10, 150) or senior Javier Mendez (5-9, 165).

Ian Carbajal, a 5-9, 185-pound running back-linebacker, is probably the Bulldogs' best player. Seniors John Ballesteros (5-10, 163) and P.J. Escarcega (5-10, 175) are two-way stalwarts at wide receiver and cornerback.

RINCON

The Rangers are moving down to do battle at the 4A level after a tough 0-10 campaign in the 5A ranks last year.

Coach Lance Prickett is beginning his 10th year at Rincon. The team had some success in the late 80's, but the past three years have been long ones indeed.

The Rangers open against Sunnyside on the road, followed by Tucson at home and Catalina on the road. Maybe a win or two early in the '93 season could help this group turn things around.

MARANA

Sean Roebuck will lead the Tigers as they make the move from 3A to 4A ball. This 5-9, 150-pounder will see action at running back and in the secondary. He has 4.7 speed.

Also back from the Tigers, who won just once in nine attempts last season, are OT/DT Keith Nixon (6-0, 210), RB/DB Joey Koelin (5-9, 150), RB/LB Jeff Prigdett (5-9, 170), QB/DB Andy Amaro (5-7, 140) and TE/DE Shane Peterson (6-0, 175).

A total of 10 varsity lettermen should be back in uniform for Marana, a school that was in the process of naming a new head coach at press time. With so many changes, this year's team faces an uphill battle, but the Tigers will give it all they have.

The 4A Sonoran promises to be a war between powerhouses Mountain View and Sahuaro. Although both teams may be behind Sabino – at least on paper – entering the '93 campaign, the Mountain Lions and the Cougars have demonstrated good ability over the years and could play their way far into the playoffs. Palo Verde and Sunnyside could challenge for the third spot.

Senior running back Corey Hill is a gamebreaker for the Sabino Sabercats. He should be one of the most exciting players in Arizona this season (Tucson Citizen photo).

MT. VIEW

When Kevin Schmidtke plays for your team, you always have a chance. After all, he tallied an amazing 31 touchdowns for Mountain View last year, while gaining nearly 1,500 yards rushing. This 5-10, 175-pounder had 24 rushing scores, three on pass receptions, two on kickoff returns and two more on punt returns.

Of course, coach Wayne Jones will attempt to get Schmidtke the ball as much as possible in '93, as this club seeks to better last year's 9-2 record. (The Mountain Lions were bumped from the playoffs in an opening-round shootout with Tempe Mountain Pointe.)

Other Lions of note are linebacker Ben Lee (6-0, 210) and kicker Mark Kilian (6-0, 205), a pair of seniors who earned second-team all-city accolades.

SAHUARO

The Cougars have 13 returnees from last year's 8-4 varsity and everybody from an 8-0 JV with which to put together a team for '93. Obviously, coach Howard Breinig isn't starting from scratch, since he has built Sahuaro into a dominant force in the Arizona 4A picture.

It all starts with a trio of seniors this year. Big TE/DE Todd Thompson (6-5, 250) is impossible to overlook. Dependable SE/DB Chris Peshut (5-11, 180) does a great job and has 4.6 speed, while honors candidate WB/DB Joshua Litz (5-8, 180) is just as quick.

Breinig appears to have plenty to work with at the skill positions, including the likes of RB/DB Fred Jenkins (5-10, 180), QB Stephen Horton (5-11, 170) and SE/DB Gordon Clark (6-0, 180).

The big showdown should be on November 5th at Sahuaro when the Cougars host Mountain View.

PALO VERDE

Bob Sicilian begins the '93 campaign at Palo Verde with quite a bit of rebuilding to do, but the Titans could be competitive for a playoff slot.

Sicilian, now in his fourth year at Palo Verde, has taken a team that was down a bit and produced a respectable 15-16 mark from 1990-92.

He did lose several fine players from his '92 club that finished with a .500 mark (5-5). If some youngsters come through, the Trojans might surprise.

SUNNYSIDE

"We are hoping we can be competitive in our league," says head mentor Richard Sanchez. "We will be a young team, trying to establish tradition."

Well, if the Blue Devils are going to top last year's 4-6 ledger, they'll need yeoman play from two-way star Diego Rico. At 5-11 and 175 pounds, Rico utilizes his 4.7 speed at both wide receiver and defensive back. And he's one of the best in the city at both positions.

Teammate Bryon Laplander (5-10, 170) plays the same positions as Rico and will provide good support. Kicker T.J. Rodriguez (5-10, 150), a senior, will also play a key role.

But much of the load will fall on veteran offensive linemen Ralph Rosales (5-11, 205), Anthony Lumm (6-3, 280) and Andy Graves (5-10, 180). Rosales and Graves will also see playing time on defense at the linebacking posts.

DESERT VIEW

A pair of award-winners are back for Desert View in '93. Both are defensive standouts for coach Humberto Federico and the Jaguars, who posted a 6-5 mark a year ago.

Lineman Theosis McDaniel (6-1, 215) and back Matt Gonzales (5-10, 170) landed all-city and all-region honors as juniors and will attempt to lead their teammates to a playoff spot in the 4A Kino dogfight.

CATALINA

Chuck McCollum, a former assistant coach at Salpointe, takes over the head coaching post. The Trojans haven't had much success on the gridiron in recent years, but McCollum is counting on OL/DL Brad Barnett (6-0, 210), HB/CB Mike Contreras (5-6, 150), FL/S Aaron Larson (6-0, 160), OL/DL Juan Valdez (6-4, 290) and OL/LB Leroy Godfrey (5-9, 170) to help this team overcome the 1-9 record Catalina compiled in '92.

ARIZONA PREP ATHLETES SOARING AT A HIGH LEVEL

Detroit Lion QB Rodney Peete, Minnesota Viking TE Steve Jordan and Philadelphia Eagle LB Byron Evans were three of a record 28 Arizona schoolboy products in the National Football League last season.

By Barry Sollenberger

The odds are stacked against you. According to the National Federation of High School Sports, close to one million teenagers play high school football each year. Just over 40,000 make college varsity teams.

But only 150 of those college players make NFL rosters. In other words, just to be safe, get a college education. Just in case the pros overlook your outstanding, hidden talent.

"The odds against a high school senior playing football in the NFL are roughly 1,000 to one," says Fred Mares of the National Federation, located in Kansas City.

To be exact, one out of every 1,233 schoolboy players lands in the NFL.

But something is wrong in Arizona.

According to the Arizona Interscholastic Association, the state's governing body, exactly 12,593 youngsters – at all levels – played 11-man football in 144 schools. Exactly 505 played 8-man ball at 20 different schools. That's 13,098 players in 1992.

But 28 former Arizona high school products played in the NFL last fall (see chart), a single-season record for the Grand Canyon State. If no more than two drop out in 1993, and newcomers Michael Bates (Seattle Seahawks), Richard Griffith (New England Patriots), Kevin Miniefield (Detroit Lions) and Ty Parten (Cincinnati Bengals) hook on – not to mention free agents – Arizona could have 30-plus schoolboys in the NFL for the first time ever.

"That really surprises me," adds Mares, editor of the Federation's national record book. "To have less than 200 high schools produce that many pro players is unique."

All 28 players didn't graduate in the same year, and all 13,000 high school participants aren't varsity players. More than half were junior varsity and freshmen, making Arizona's mark more amazing. In other words, based on participation alone, Arizona high schools should have no more than one dozen players in the NFL in any given season.

But they had 28 in 1992!

"I was really surprised at football in the Phoenix and Tucson areas," says Tom Holmoe, a Stanford assistant who recruits Arizona. "They play great ball in Phoenix. One of the best football cities in the country. Top to bottom the leagues are tough. It's just a great football state — a real fruitful area. But it's no secret."

To recruiters like Holmoe, size and population are no barriers. Last spring, Stanford signed the Arizona player of the year, Brophy Prep running back Mike Mitchell, and Glendale receiver Alistair White, a player the Cardinal think is a real steal.

"But every school looks for players to fit their system," adds Holmoe. "Because of our academic requirements, we are forced to recruit nationally. Phoenix is a hot spot. In more ways than one."

One local mentor who has coached more than his share of college material is Mountain Pointe's Karl Kiefer, winner of more than 200 games in the high school ranks. "Phoenix has grown such, that every year there are 10 kids, no less, who can play at Arizona State's level," insists Kiefer. "Some colleges have that figured out. Some haven't."

According to Gary Wright of the Seattle Seahawks, since the New York Giants signed Phoenix Union's Cecil "Brute" Mulleneaux in 1932, close to 200 Arizona high school products have played professional football in Canada or the United States.

Here are interesting facts regarding the current crop:

* Of last year's crop of 28, only nine played college football at ASU; but that's two more than played for those Cats down the road...

* More Arizona kids (28) dotted NFL rosters than did Sun Devils (20); remembering that nine played at ASU...

* The Minnesota Vikings had the most with four, including Pro Bowl players Steve Jordan (South Mountain) and Randall McDaniel (Agua Fria)...

* South Mountain, which leads the all-time Arizona list at 10, was one of several schools to have two active NFL alumni: Jordan, and Philly linebacker Byron Evans, a quarterback in high school.

SAN MANUEL, SAFFORD LEADERS IN 3A SOUTH

With 22 letterwinners back from a '92 team that finished 9-2 and with the graduates of a super 7-1 JV, San Manuel is certainly ready to compete with all comers in the 3A ranks.

But don't get the wrong idea. The Miners aren't even a heavy favorite to capture the top spot in their own region, since the 3A South is so competitive.

Safford will be in the hunt again and Miami is very dangerous. In fact, these three teams look so good on paper that the second or third team in the region might wind up with the state championship trophy.

Keep an eye on Coolidge too. Larry Delbridge has another good club and his Bears could easily qualify for a playoff position.

SAN MANUEL

Coach Mike Brown is relying on five veterans to shoulder the leadership role this season. All are very capable football players.

The best of the returnees might be senior defensive end Justin Waggoner. At 6-3 and 240 pounds, he is the Miners' mainstay with the other team has the ball. Of course, Waggoner has plenty on help in the trenches from DT Robert Franco (6-3, 250) and MLB Alfonso Lozoya (5-10, 230), both seniors.

A junior, Richard Gonzalez, is San Manuel's top rusher. He has 4.7 speed and ran for over 1,000 yards in '92. Another skill position performer of note is senior WR Ryan Collins, a 6-0, 175-pounder who grabbed 34 passes last fall.

Brown is a bit cautious about the early schedule, but we anticipate the Miners will come through with flying colors and be on the way to a dynamite campaign.

SAFFORD

"We're trying to put together an offensive line in order to compete in our region," says head coach Ken Guzik, "and replace Wayland Carter's 1,600 yards rushing."

Guzik's opposing coaches think he will be successful in that effort. One gigantic step in the right direction is the availability of a trio of three-year starters.

The Bulldogs' returning quarterback will be Luke Arbizo, who passed for over 900 yards as a junior. Arbizo guided Safford to a 10-2 mark last season.

"Richard Lopez is one of the toughest kids on our team," says Guzik. He converted last year from a running back to a lineman and he was very good. At 5-8 and 175 pounds, Lopez is invaluable at offensive guard and linebacker.

The third key veteran is DL Jesse Price. He's not particularly large (6-2, 180), but he has proven to be a headache for rival offensive attacks.

Others to watch are juniors Tony Gutierrez, Robert Abalos and Caleb Hensen. Gutierrez (5-8, 220) and Hensen (6-2, 235) will see action in both lines, while Abalos (6-3, 175) is a backup quarterback for now who will see regular duty at wingback and defensive back.

The defending 3A high hurdles champ, Andre Carman, will attempt to take over for the now-graduated Carter at running back. Carman (6-1, 170) has 14.5 speed in the hurdles, so you know he can move. However, he's not an experienced football player, so Guzik really doesn't know what to expect. Chances are Carman won't be able to repeat Carter's outstanding season. But he should give the rest of the 3A South plenty to worry about.

MIAMI

"We have been state runnersup three years in a row," says Vandal head mentor Bill Johnson, who directed his team to 10 wins in 13 outings in '92. "We want to win a championship."

Could '93 be that special year for Miami? Eighteen lettermen are back and raring to go, including honors candidates Ray Rocha, Robert Cano, Rawley Evans and Levi Shaffer.

Rocha (5-9, 160), Cano (5-10, 180) and Evans (5-9, 150) roam an impressive Vandal secondary. On offense, they play quarterback, running back and wingback, respectively. Evans is especially quick, with 4.6 speed.

Shaffer has good size (6-2, 220) and is a major factor up front, even though he's just a junior. Adding more power in the lines are seniors Nathan Felix (5-11, 245) and Chris Mejia (6-3, 225).

COOLIDGE

"This season we lack experience in the offensive and defensive lines," says Delbridge. "We will be counting on some juniors to fill the holes."

But it's a different story at the skill positions. Delbridge is happy to have the likes of running back Johnny Johnson (5-8, 165) back for another year. This talented junior has quick feet (4.6) and is a threat from anywhere on the field.

In addition to Johnson, the Bears have 12 varsity veterans on hand from last year's 7-4 squad. Coolidge made good progress over the course of the '92 season, before bowing to Snowflake in the 3A quarterfinals.

Watch for Johnson to get support from senior FL/DB Scotty Rushing (5-11, 170) and junior RB/DB Floyd Reece (5-8, 165), while seniors Tomas

Mustangs hope to improve on last year's 3-6 ledger.

"We lost two tough games that we could just as easily have won," says Boyter. "We were very close to being 5-4 instead of 3-6."

Well, maybe better days are just around the corner for Boyter and crew. Seventeen letterwinners await the opening kickoff. Most notable of the returnees are FB James Jerde (6-2, 190), OG Jason Wilkerson (6-2, 190), WB Michael Gentry (5-11, 180) and junior WB Triveni Baron (6-1, 205).

Sahuarita fans will also be cheering for CB Shay Lopez (5-10, 150), LB Daniel Nowak (5-9, 150), OG Matt Sanora (5-10, 170), QB Bryan Valdez (6-2, 165), DT Lucio Vargas (5-10, 275), DT Ramiro Ordaz (5-11, 220), CB Miles Romney (5-11, 155), DE Chris Valdez (5-11, 185), LB Angel Solares (5-8, 195), LB Narciso Valenzuela (5-9, 160), E Ryan Alsop (6-0, 165), E Stan Culling (5-11, 150) and LB Mike Johnson (6-3, 175).

Cardenas (5-10, 220) and Josh Henry (5-11, 220) throws their bodies around on both the offensive and defensive fronts.

The home opener, a September 17th matchup with Safford, should give the Bears an early chance to make a statement about the 3A South race.

SANTA CRUZ

No team in the region has more to prove than the Dust Devils. After struggling through a uncharacteristic 0-9 campaign, this bunch is ready to make amends.

John Batina, formerly an assistant coach for Jay Denton at Santa Cruz, takes over the head coaching reins for the Dust Devils. Now in his third year at the school, Batina is very familiar with the personnel available.

Skill position players include RB Albert Rodriguez (5-6, 160), TE/DB Steve Harrison (6-0, 175), QB/DB Sean Sullivan (5-9, 155) and QB/DB Johnny Flores (5-10, 160).

Going to war up front are OG Santana Garcia (5-10, 215), T Ricardo Alleman (5-11, 185), T David Garcia (5-10, 200), OG/LB Ralph Moran (5-9, 180), T Herbert Garcia (5-9, 245) and OG/LB Rudy Ibarra (5-9, 190).

It appears Batina will stay with the Wishbone offense and 5-2 defense. Gaining ground in the 3A South is never easy, but don't ever sell the Dust Devils short.

'93 SEASON ON TAP IN SOUTHERN ARIZONA

YUMA

5A CENTRAL REGION

"Yuma High ended its brief stay (two years) in 4A with a 7-3 record in 1992," says head coach Curt Weber. "The passing game produced 1,000 yards and 21 TDs. It was a great first year to take over the program."

However, the Criminals take a step up in competition this year, when they venture over to the 5A Central Region. Playing the likes Mesa (the defending 5A champs), McClintock, Corona del Sol, Dobson and Chandler will prove to be quite a challenge.

On the plus side is the tandem of quarterback Jason Maas to wide receiver Mike Lemos. Maas, a 6-3, 190-pound senior, is a transfer from Kofa, where he threw for 1,360 yards and eight six-pointers last year. Lemos (6-1, 180) grabbed 15 passes in '92, good for 432 yards and seven scores. He's also an accomplished defensive back, as proven by his six interceptions a year ago.

The running back corps includes Quinn Vance (6-0, 185) and Shonti Land (5-10, 190), while Ryan Hancock (6-0, 170) is another capable wide receiver-defensive back type.

Headliners up front are C/LB Allen Sullins (5-11, 195), OT/DT Rick Reyes (5-11, 240), OT/DT Rob Butcher (6-0, 235), OT Oscar Parra (6-0, 230) and OG/DT Tim Zazueta (6-0, 240).

CIBOLA

5A FIESTA REGION

A major rebuilding job is underway at Cibola, where the Raiders made their first playoff appearance in school history last year. Gone are many of the seniors that sparked the team to a hefty 8-2 record.

But Cibola does have some good ones back, namely FB/TE/DE Ben Guirola (5-10, 220), OG/ILB Billy Pikula (6-1, 215), OT/DE Kyle Ball (6-5, 250), TB/OLB Darnel Parker (5-9, 185), C/DT Josh Viall (6-1, 225), WR/DB Brian Dunstan (5-9, 150) and WR/FS Shawn Kenney (6-2, 175).

Guirola, Pikula and Ball need to emerge as team leaders for the Raiders to enjoy another winning campaign.

KOFA

5A DESERT VALLEY REGION

New coach George Janes takes over for the Kings, who finished 2-8 in '92. "We'll have to learn fast and grow up quick," says Janes.

Kofa has a potential gamebreaker in RB/DB Vernie Gilmore, a 5-10, 170-pound senior with great speed. Another skill player to watch is WR/SS Jorge Lucero (5-11, 150).

Bookend guards Derryl Farar (6-0, 200) and Frank Miller (6-1, 210) will pace the linemen. It'll be tough on Janes and his guys to turn it around, but getting to the .500 mark is not out of the question.

CASA GRANDE

4A EAST VALLEY REGION

A new coach of considerable fame, Stump Mitchell, takes over the controls at Casa Grande. Mitchell, the former NFL star for the Cardinals and a current player for the Arizona Rattlers, brings his vast experience to the Cougars, a club that concluded '92 with a 3-7 slate.

Mitchell's top returnees figure to be QB Jason Lenderman (6-1, 195) and RB/LB Russell Trejo (5-11, 190), both juniors. Lenderman threw for five scores last season, while Trejo rushed for over 800 yards.

Noseguard Jeremy Alderson (6-0, 180) chipped in five fumble recoveries a year ago and WR/DB John Francois (5-8, 150) demonstrated some breakaway ability in limited action.

GILA BEND

2A WEST REGION

The Gila Monsters are now part of the 2A West Region, where they will buck heads with the likes of Camp Verde and Wickenburg. Coach Terry Nodlinski would love to see his squad handle the competition and improve on last season's 4-5-1 record.

Quarterback-free safety Lucio Villegas (6-1, 165) is Nodlinski's leader at Gila Bend. He contributed over 900 yards passing and 200 yards rushing on offense, plus 11 pass interceptions and 40 tackles on defense.

Linebacker Gabriel Alvarez (5-11, 185) was also busy, accounting for 80 tackles, three fumble recoveries, three quarterback sacks and a blocked kick.

Additional standouts are RB/DB Mike Hipp (5-11, 170), LB Robert Valdez (5-7, 150), OG/LB Danny Clouse (5-11, 195) and WR Bo Gonzalez (5-9, 150).

ANTELOPE

2A WEST REGION

The Rams have a new head coach in Alan Schuckman, who will be attempting to direct Antelope to another winning season.

This club finished with a 5-4 ledger in '92 and Schuckman inherits 13 letterwinners from that bunch.

The veterans expected to have big senior campaigns are WR/DB Luis Ecparaza (5-9, 170), WR/DB Victor Ramirez (5-11, 170) and OL/DL Ian Sharp (5-9, 190).

TOHONO O'ODHAM

2A WEST REGION

In just their second year of competition, the Eagles won four and lost four. The line looks solid, but skill position players and depth could be a hurdle.

A half-dozen starters are back and raring to go. Free safety Jermaine Lopez (5-11, 140), C Gus Antone (5-11, 280), RB/DB Randy Josemaria (5-6, 150), OG/NG Stuart Lewis (5-8, 220), OT Marvin Aguilla (5-10, 250) and DB Ranando Josemaria (5-8, 140) certainly will be key factors this fall. Randy Josemaria is the lone senior of the six.

BENSON

2A EAST REGION

A couple of tough-luck losses have made the Benson Bobcats even more determined to get the job done in '93. Although a so-so 4-5 record in '92 may not show it, nearly everyone in the 2A East is anticipating a great season for coach Pete Bearse and his troops this time out.

The tandem of Kib Berryhill and Ryan Mims should show the way for the Bobcats. Berryhill is quite a physical specimen. At 6-6 and 230 pounds, he'll play tight end and defensive end this year. Mims, a 6-1, 190-pound junior, brings many talents to the table. He has good size; he's the quickest Bobcat; and he'll set up shop at running back and linebacker. Both should land plenty of honors this fall.

Others to watch are junior FB Anthony Cobb (5-10, 200), OG/LB William Ellsworth (5-10, 190), NG Elliott Montijo (5-10, 185) and DB Nathan Bernal (6-0, 185).

"We'll be disappointed if we're not number one or two (in the region) this year," says Bearse.

BISBEE

2A EAST REGION

What a season 1992 turned out to be for the Pumas! Coach Fred Giacoletti led Bisbee to its first seven-win season since 1963. In fact, this team has won more games in the last three years than it totaled in the previous 19 seasons.

What about '93? "The program is on the way up and we should have another good year," says Giacoletti. "We will have to throw the ball more than I like, but, with Lindstrom and all his receivers returning, we should have a good year."

That would be 6-4, 205-pound senior quarterback Gabe Lindstrom. As a junior, he was the region's best passer, hitting on 80 of 140 throws for 975 yards and 13 TDs. Lindstrom has the physical skills to play college football.

His receivers include TE Ralph Parra (6-3, 195) and SE Pedro Ruiz (6-2, 175), both seniors. Parra led his league in '92 with 24 receptions and six six-pointers.

The work at running back should go to Justin Ashby (5-11, 165), while G/NG James Jones (5-11, 230) and OT/DT John Meadows (6-6, 255) are the prime players in the trenches. Linebackers Lauro Espinoza and Art Carabeo lend support and are keys on defense.

WILLCOX

2A EAST REGION

"It was a very exciting year," recalls coach Mike Patterson. "Our win over number-one ranked Ray was the highlight of our season." That occurred in the first round of the playoffs, before the Cowboys lost to eventual 2A champ St. Johns in the quarterfinals. Overall, Willcox posted a 7-5 slate and the prospects for '93 are good.

Thirteen veterans are back in uniform, including OG/LB Steven Ward. This hard-nosed 5-9, 185-pound senior is one of the team leaders for the Cowboys. Big OT Andy Terry (6-5, 265) and OG Jason Corbit (6-0, 185) will try to punch holes in the opponents' defenses.

Keying the offense will be QB Trent Hanson (5-9, 165), RB Troy Phillips (5-7, 175) and TE Jarred Allred (5-11, 175). The Cowboys are definitely a contender.

TOMBSTONE

2A EAST REGION

Coach Steve Reeder is converting his flanker from a year ago to tailback and he's hoping junior Gordon Molina (6-0, 175) will make the switch a big success. Molina will also serve as the backup quarterback.

Others contributing at the skill positions are juniors Karl Wednt (5-8, 150) and Dan Snyder (5-8, 150). They are running back-defensive back types.

The leader up front is OT/DT Cody Nuckles, a 6-2, 185-pound senior. Some young players will have to step up and do the job if the Yellow Jackets are to greatly improve on their lowly 1-8 mark of a year ago.

MORENCI

2A EAST REGION

Don't overlook Morenci in the 2A East race. The Wildcats, with Reynaldo Peru at the helm, came ever so close to winning the 2A title last year, finishing 11-2 and second in the state.

"It was one of the best seasons in school history," says Peru, who prepped at Morenci before playing collegiately at Arizona State. "We surprised many people who didn't think that team was ready to challenge for the title."

But getting to that level again won't be easy. Depth is a problem and the lines have to be rebuilt. There's a good supply of experienced backs.

In fact, with QB Jimmy Enriquez (5-10, 160), FB Steven Lozano (5-9, 160), RB Tim Rios (5-5, 135) and RB Rusty Armbrust (5-6, 140), the Wildcats are well-equipped to drive the football down the field. Enriquez, as a sophomore, threw for over 600 yards and six TDs.

Lozano scooted for 1,015 and 10 scores, averaging nearly seven yards per carry for Morenci.

C/DL Jeremy Rios (5-9, 175) and TE/DE Jaime Siqueiros (6-1, 185) could be the go-to guys up front.

THATCHER

2A EAST REGION

With 29 lettermen back from a 5-4 team, how could you think of Thatcher as anything but dangerous? The Eagles can play.

All-stater Pat Whelton (6-1, 260) is super on both offense and defense. He'll team with a couple of very capable linemen – Brad Johnson (6-2, 220) and Tom Davis (6-1, 175) – to knock some people off the ball.

Handling the pigskin will be QB Vince Alva (5-11, 145), HB Chris Jorgenson (5-11, 170) and HB Ivan Brown (5-10, 160).

Coach Ed Shamey feels good about the team. "We have a good nucleus returning and we should do well."

DUNCAN

2A EAST REGION

Veteran coach Jake Rowden takes over at Duncan, where the Wildkats had four victories in 10 outings last season. Fifteen lettermen and members of last year's 5-0 JV should form a good group.

The top Duncan returnee figures to be senior running back Orien Wilkins. At 6-1 and 205 pounds, he may be even more valuable at linebacker.

Mighty-mite Clyde Pace (5-9, 140) is a big-play guy at wide receiver and defensive back. Also keep an eye on junior C Armand Lunt (6-1, 170), junior TE/DE Brian Donaldson (6-4, 190), DB Brandon Forsgren (5-10, 170) and OT/DL Brad Williams (5-10, 260).

Rowden can also count on Shay Bowen, Russell Crofts, Steve Lunt and Loren Lunt to help the Duncan cause.

PIMA

2A EAST REGION

When you start seven freshmen, you probably are going to take your lumps. The Roughriders were 2-6 last year. But now they could be a tough match for years to come.

Coach Ron Martinez lost only one key starter; that was his quarterback. His top returning players include linemen Flint Smith (6-2, 180), Ebben McWhorter (6-0, 215) and soph Andy Rios (6-1, 190).

Senior Jason McEuen (6-1, 166) will team with soph Jeremy Saline (5-9, 160) to handle most of the running back duties. Pima could be a real factor in region and state playoff competition.

FLORENCE

2A CENTRAL REGION

"It's going to be a rebuilding year," predicts Florence head man Phillip Verdugo. However, the Gophers do return 18 lettermen from a '92 squad that won six of nine contests.

Big linemen Adam Slaughter (6-2, 250), Miguel Felix (6-1, 250) and Tony Frazier (5-8, 250) are formidable.

Senior Andrew Ramirez (6-4, 190) and soph Frank Jimenez (6-2, 175) will vie for the quarterback position, while seniors Ruben Granillo (5-10, 190), Jose Bandilla (5-8, 150), David Chuff (6-0, 185), juniors Russell Talas (5-10, 160), Andy Silvas (5-6, 140) and soph Arthur Neal (5-8, 160) will share time at running back.

SUPERIOR

2A CENTRAL REGION

Coach Tom Joseph guided the Panthers to a fine 6-3 record in '92 and he begins '93 with 15 veterans from that club.

Of course, every team needs leadership and Superior appears to have that covered, with the likes of TE/LB Billy Duarte (6-1, 208), OG/LB Jimmy Padilla (6-0, 195), C/DE Sammy Fernandez (6-0, 190), FB/NT John Ortega (5-11, 203) and DB Richard Alonzo (5-8, 145) on hand.

Duarte could be one of the better players in the 2A Central and is a definite candidate for postseason honors.

HAYDEN

2A CENTRAL REGION

Joe Estrada, Jr. was very pleased with the progress his team made a year ago. The Lobos advanced to the playoffs and chalked up six wins in ten games.

"No one expected us to win but two or three games," says Estrada. "Senior leadership provided us with the big edge."

He's looking for more of the same this season. Twelfth-graders like FB/DL Chale Vega (5-9, 200), RB/DB David O'Brien (5-11, 165), OG/DE Aaron Cruz (5-8, 160) and OL/DL Carlos Arbizio (6-0, 180) are capable. Juniors QB Bryan Oatis (5-8, 140) and RB/DB Michael Hindjus (5-7, 195) must come through for the Lobos too.

PATAGONIA

1A SOUTH REGION

Twelve Lobos are back for coach Bill House at Patagonia, but they'll have a very difficult time matching the accomplishments of last year's team.

You see, the '92 Lobos tallied the most points in school history (517) while gaining over 4,000 yards. That produced a 10-1 slate and a runnerup finish in Arizona 1A football.

Many of the standouts from that team are gone, but House anticipates soph RB/DB Chopper Murrietta (5-10, 145), junior OL/DL David Martin (6-0, 175), senior QB/DB Noah Gessler (5-9, 165) and senior OL/DL Gary Garrison (6-0, 210) will help Patagonia chalk up another winning campaign.

CLIFTON

1A SOUTH REGION

"Hopefully, we'll be challenging the league leaders," says Clifton coach Ron Aguillo. "We could be a darkhorse."

Returning for the Trojans are a half-dozen regulars who should be the nucleus of this year's outfit. A total of 17 lettermen are back.

But the mainstays are FB/LB Chris Aguillo (6-2, 210), E/LB Frank Chavez (5-10, 165), WR/DB Eddie Navarette (5-10, 160), RB/LB Agapito Nabor (5-10, 170), E/DE Luis Enriquez (5-9, 185) and C/DE Brian Avila (5-10, 170).

Improving on the 4-4 record a year ago is not a given, but Aguillo, Aguillo and crew could manage that nicely.

FT. THOMAS

1A SOUTH REGION

Just eight letterwinners are back for coach Bill Stiver at Ft. Thomas, so the Apaches are a bit light on experience entering the '93 campaign.

"We are rebuilding with a lot of young guys in different positions," says Stiver. "But our JV has done well the last two years, so that will help. We have talent, so anything is possible."

Back from a club that finished 6-2 last fall are QB/DB Marcello Desela (5-10, 175), OG/DT Jack Moses (6-0, 211), E/DB Jervel Wilson (5-10, 165), OG/LB Catlett McEuen (5-11, 165), RB/LB Clifford Stewart (5-7, 180) and OG/DL Nathaniel Moses (5-9, 200).

VALLEY UNION

1A SOUTH REGION

The Blue Devils were not up to par in '92, when they won only once in eight outings. "It was our worst season in quite a few years," says Valley Union head mentor Tom Davis. "It was the worst of my career."

But don't expect this squad to stay down long. "We should be much improved," says Davis. "We have some skill people, better size and more experience."

The skill people include QB/DB Vernon Brazeal (6-2, 170), TB/DB Duane Mortenson (5-7, 150), E/DB Preston White (6-1, 155) and WB/CB David Owen (5-10, 160). Mortenson, just a junior, could be a team leader and one of the better players in the 1A South.

The line will feature C/DE Aaron Larson (6-0, 180) and OG/DL Jose Herrera (5-10, 180).

P.V. CHRISTIAN

1A CENTRAL REGION

In '92, the Crusaders advanced to the playoffs for the first time in school history. Nevertheless, they had a modest 4-6 ledger. But the outlook for '93 is exciting to coach Tom Armour.

"We are bigger, stronger and faster," says Armour. "We have all of our offensive line returning. We are rebuilding the skill positions, but we have some good athletes ready to fill those positions."

Palo Verde Christian's top veterans appear to be senior OL/DL Matt Northrop (5-11, 210), junior RB/LB Adam Smith (5-6, 140) and soph OL/DL Brian Fitzgerald (6-0, 200).

ASDB

1A CENTRAL REGION

Coach Fred Gouby has eight lettermen back from his '92 club, one that won twice while losing six on the season.

The Sentinels lost three players to graduation, but six starters are back. Keep an eye on junior FB Josue Barraza, senior NG Moises Escandon, sophomore OLB Jeremy Gibbons, senior TB Teddy Meadows and junior WR/QB Jeremy Fass.

Gibbons had 42 solos tackles and Escandon collected 34 solos to help the ASDB cause. Meadows rushed for 352 yards and four scores last season.

Jeremy Rios (51) leads scathback Steven Lozano (35) as the Morenci Wildcats head upfield.
